

Application for Accessibility, Violence Prevention, and Intervention Support and Stipend

Introduction

Indiana Disability Justice (IDJ) is a coalition of people with disabilities/self-advocates, disability service providers, and caregivers who have a common goal of increasing holistic wellness of people with disabilities through education, advocacy, restorative and transformative accountability, policy change, and research. This is us, join our work!

Support Opportunity

Beginning December 2021 and for a limited time, IDJ can provide various levels of support to assist agencies in manifesting change that positively impacts people with disabilities in Indiana. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and will be awarded until funding is depleted. Submissions are reviewed by the Indiana Disability Justice leadership action team; applicants will be notified if the team has additional questions. Email IDJ Leadership Action Team at INdisabilityjustice@gmail.com with any questions.

Outcome Goals

How will this support project advance your mission?

What do you hope to accomplish by the end of the support project?

Project Collaboration

Successful projects require collaboration. Listed below are some of the concepts and resources necessary for a positive outcome:

- Open communication—a willingness to review where you ARE—rather than where you would like to BE
- Autonomy—to review relevant agency policy, procedure, and financial documents (value transparency over gatekeeping)
- Foster a culture of innovation
- Get the right people involved and give them the time necessary to do the work

Using the concepts listed above—provide an example of how to ensure that we are all working to the same goal.

Example: To make sure there is open communication with our agency we will post all of our work in a shared file available to everyone.

Please share any additional information you wish us to consider.
